Supplementary Material for Your Programs

From the BOOKSHELF

ADULTS AND YOUNG ADULTS

See November suggestions.

YOUNG PEOPLE

"Who have people through the centuries said that Christ is?"

The Gospel of Redemption

(26b; $4.75) by Walter T. Conner

The author shows clearly and convincingly the adequacy of God's grace for man's need and points up the centrality of Christ and his atoning work in history. The first three chapters deal with man's need of redemption, God's purpose of redemption, and the redemptive work of Christ.

New Testament Theology

(26b; $5.95) by Frank Staggs

The author's conviction is that the New Testament is concerned basically with proclaiming the story of salvation. He considers the plight of man as sinner, the Christology of the New Testament, the doctrine of salvation, and the death and resurrection of Jesus.

MARRIED YOUNG PEOPLE

"What does it mean for us to be stewards of the gospel?"

Good Stewards

(6c; 75¢) by J. E. Dillard

The author presents attractively and clearly the biblical teaching on stewardship and has a chapter on the stewardship of the gospel.

Stewardship: Witnessing for Christ

(6r; $1.95) by Virginia Ely

The author probes the opportunities for Christian witnessing inherent in personality, possessions, influence, time, and life itself. She freshly enunciates Christ's Great Commission.

God's Will and Your Life

(26b; $1.95) by T. B. Maston

Emphasizing that God's will is for all of life, the author discusses God's will and how we can know his will in making daily decisions. He gives suggestions for determining God's will and discusses each suggestion.
